Miss Edna Earle spent several days in Easley last week.

The Glassy Mountain school began Monday, with Mr. Lee teaching the school.

Miss Verner Seal, of Greenwood, is the attractive guest of Mrs. J. D. Hughey.

Mrs. S. C. Templeton, of Greenville, visited her sister, Mrs. B. F. Parsons, last week.

Nine young men stood the Clemson College entrance examination held here last Friday.

Mr. Frank Day of the Tabor section gave the young folks an ice cream supper Saturday night.

The first ripe home-grown watermelon we have heard of this year came from Edd Boggs' patch July 4.

There will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church Sunday, Rev. J. C. Bailey, pastor, will be out of the city.

Dr. J. L. Bolt has many friends in Pickens who would like to see him in the race either for the house or senate.

A company of small boys came through Pickens last week enroute to Jocassee valley. They came from Greenville and left here about 3 o'clock.

Miss Alma Bramlette left Wednesday for a few weeks visit to her uncle, Dr. Jewel at Easley and relatives at Pickens.
—Greenville News.

It is the opinion of many people that C. L. Cureton of Pickens would make one of the best members of the legislature we could send. What about running, Charlie?

One of the most enjoyable picnics of the season was given last Friday, at the Hollingsworth place. The picnic was given by the young ladies of the Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday school.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Scales, Messrs.
E. M. Moffet, Abner Cureton and Walter Scales, of Greenville, visited at the home of Mr.
R. L. Davis last week. They enjoyed a fishing trip while here.

J. Haskell Dendy, a well-known citizen of Richland, Oconee county, died at his home Friday, July 10. He was a brother of Prof. W. E. Dendy, at one time principal of the Pickens school, but now of Monroe, Ga.

"Bob" Griffin, familiarly known as "Major," died at the Greenville county almshouse Saturday night. Bob is said to have been a native of Pickens county, and has made several trips to Pickens in his travels.
He was well known in every town from Spartanburg to Seneca on the Southern railroad, up and down which he traveled for many years. For the past several years he made his home in Greenville. About a year ago he was sent to the State hospital for the insane, but subsequently released. Peace to his ashes.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Townes, on July 7th, a girl.

Mrs. T. L. Bivins and children are spending a few days at Brown's.

byterian church in Pickens is making arrangements to build a sidewalk from the Hollingsworth house to the church and make other improvements around the church.

R. B. Mauldin, the new manager of the Easley laundry, was in Pickens Tuesday in the interest of the laundry. This laundry will send a wagon to Pickens twice each week, gathering up laundry every Tuesday and delivering on Friday.

Sheriff Roark and several Easley officers captured eight negro gamblers at the old Hamilton place, five miles below Pickensville Saturday night.
The prisoners were released on bond and will be tried before Magistrate Jameson's court in Easley.

A crowd of more than fifty men from different sections of the county came to Pickens last Friday, it is said, for the purpose of lynching the negro Floyd McCullum. However, the negro was not here, but had been carried to Columbia, as stated in The Sentinel last week.

We are trying not to bore our readers with political news just now, as we are sure all of us will hear enough of it before the election. However, if any real news happens we will let you know of it. Most of it now is vaporings and views.
However, be sure to be in Pickens Friday and hear the senatorial candidates for yourself.

Willie Thompson, of Greenville, spent several days here this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richey.
Willie has been in the electrical business for some time and has formed a partnership with W.
G. Hall, an experienced electrician of Wilmington, N. C. They will begin business in Greenville at an early date under the firm name of Greenville Electrical Co. Their place of business is on McBee Avenue.

Griffin cemetery are earnestly requested to meet at Griffin church on Friday, July 31, for the purpose of cleaning off cemetery. Bring the necessary tools. S. H. BROWN, C. C.

Notice

All interested are requested to meet at Porter's Chapel Saturday before fourth Sunday in July for the purpose of cleaning off the graveyard.

Card of Thanks

We wish to sincerely thank those friends and neighbors who showed us so much kindness in our recent affliction, the death of wife and mother. Mere words cannot express our great appreciation of these acts, and we pray that God's blessings rest upon each and every one of our friends; also, Drs.
Kirksey and Porter.

Notice to Old Soldiers

The surviving soldiers of the Confederate States in Pickens county are requested to meet in each township on August 1 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of electing a representative to meet at the court house on the first Monday in September, to elect a county pension board for the year 1915. The place for meeting for each township is as follows:

Easley at Easley.
Liberty at Liberty.
Central at Central.
Pickens at Pickens.
Nimmons at the Creek.
Eastoe at Antioch Church.
Pumpkintown at Sutherland's Store.
Dacusville at Loper's Gin.

When assembled they shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary by ballot, and an ex-Confederate soldier and not a holder or an applicant for a pension as a representative of said township.

All receiving pensions now will continue to get pensions.

J. B. NEWBERRY,
Pension Commissioner.
